

Festival of Bounty

Phyllis Rawlinson Park

Wednesday, August 4, 2010 4-8pm

Join Evergreen and the Town of Richmond Hill for this annual local food festival!

We will celebrate summer's bounty with a summer feast of fresh, local food, garden activities and community music making. Connect with other gardeners to share gardening tips and tricks and celebrate fresh food. Everyone is welcome!

What to Bring:

Your own dishes, cutlery, a picnic blanket or lawn chairs and a musical instrument if you can.

We will Provide:

Food, drinking water and snacks.

Where to Meet:

The community garden is located close to the main park entrance. Phyllis Rawlinson Park is located on Leslie Street, just north of 19th Avenue.

Agenda

- 4pm Help us set up the zero-waste outdoor kitchen.
- 4:30pm Participants help prepare fresh dishes for the summer feast.
- 6pm Share dishes and celebrate summer's bounty with kids' garden activities, stories and community music making.

TO REGISTER

Contact Mildred Ho, Stewardship Co-ordinator
mho@evergreen.ca or 416-596-1495 x303

evergreen.ca

richmondhill.ca/naturalheritage

All Evergreen events are equal partnerships between Evergreen and our site partners.

Program Partners and Supporters:

This project has received funding from Environment Canada's EcoAction Community Funding Program.

