

The Corporation of the City of Richmond Hill

By-Law 8-24

A By-Law to enact a City-wide Fire Protection Services Development Charges By-law for the City of Richmond Hill

Whereas Section 2 of the Development Charges Act, 1997, S.O. 1997, c. 27 ("the Act") provides that the council of a municipality may pass a by-law for the imposition of development charges against land if the development of the land would increase the need for services arising from development of the area to which the by-law applies;

And Whereas Section 10 of the Act, the Council of the City of Richmond Hill has received and considered a Development Charges Study dated December 22, 2023 respecting the imposition of development charges in the City of Richmond Hill;

And Whereas the Council of the City of Richmond Hill has given notice and held a public meeting on the 13th day of February, 2024 in accordance with Section 12 of the Act and the regulations thereto;

And Whereas any person who attended the public meeting was afforded an opportunity to make representations and the public generally were afforded an opportunity to make written submissions relating to the proposed bylaw;

And Whereas the Council of the City of Richmond Hill resolved on March 27, 2024 that it is the intention of the Council of the City of Richmond Hill to ensure that the increase in need for services identified in connection with the enactment of the by-law will be met;

And Whereas the Council of the City of Richmond Hill resolved on March 27, 2024 that no further public meeting be required and that this by-law be brought forward for enactment.

Now Therefore The Council Of The Corporation Of The City Of Richmond Hill Enacts As Follows:

3.5. No more than one development charge for each service designated in subsection 2.1 shall be imposed upon any lands, buildings or structures to which this by-law applies even though two or more of the actions described in subsection 3.4 are required before the lands, buildings or structures can be developed.

3.6. Despite subsection 3.5, if two or more of the actions described in subsection 3.4 occur at different times, additional development charges shall be imposed if the subsequent action has the effect of increasing the need for services.

3.7. Subsection 3.4 shall not apply in respect of an action mentioned in subsection 3.4 (a) to (g), if the only effect of the action is to:

- a) permit the enlargement of an existing dwelling unit; or
- b) permit the creation of additional dwelling units as prescribed, subject to the prescribed restrictions, in prescribed classes of existing residential buildings or prescribed structures ancillary to existing residential buildings.

3.8. The creation of a second dwelling unit in prescribed classes of proposed new residential buildings, including structures ancillary to dwellings, is, subject to the prescribed restrictions, exempt from development charges.

3.9. For greater clarity, prescribed under subsections 3.7 and 3.8 of this by-law as prescribed in the Regulation under the Act.

Exemptions for Additional Dwelling Unit

3.10. Notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law, development charges shall not be imposed with respect to:

- a) an enlargement to an existing dwelling unit;
- b) the creation of additional dwelling units in existing rental housing equal to the greater of one or 1% of the existing dwelling units;

3.11. Notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law, development charges shall not be imposed with respect to the creation of any of the following in certain existing dwelling units:

- a) A second dwelling unit in an existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse on a parcel of land on which residential use, other than ancillary residential use, is permitted, if all buildings and structures ancillary to the existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse cumulatively contain no more than one dwelling unit.
- b) A third dwelling unit in an existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse on a parcel of land on which residential use, other than ancillary residential use, is permitted, if no building or structure ancillary to the existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse contains any dwelling units.
- c) One dwelling unit in a building or structure ancillary to an existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse on a parcel of urban residential land, if the existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse contains no more than two residential units and no other building or structure ancillary to the existing detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse contains any dwelling units.

3.12. Notwithstanding the provisions of this by-law, development charges shall not be imposed with respect to the creation of any of the following in new residential buildings:

- a) A second dwelling unit in a new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse on a parcel of land on which residential use, other than ancillary residential use, is permitted, if all buildings and structures ancillary to the new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse cumulatively will contain no more than one dwelling unit;
- b) A third dwelling unit in a new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse on a parcel of land on which residential use, other than ancillary residential use, is permitted, if no building or structure ancillary to the new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse contains any dwelling units;
- c) One dwelling unit in a building or structure ancillary to a new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse on a parcel of urban residential land, if the new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse contains no more than two residential units and no other building or structure ancillary to the new detached house, semi-detached house or rowhouse contains any dwelling units.

3.13. Exemption for Industrial Development:

- a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this by-law, there shall be an exemption from the payment of development charges for one or more enlargements of an existing industrial building on its site, whether attached or separate from the existing industrial building, up to a maximum of fifty percent (50%) of the gross floor area before the first enlargement for which an exemption from the payment of development charges was granted pursuant to the Act or this subsection. Development charges shall be imposed in accordance with this by-law with respect to the amount of the gross floor area of an enlargement that results in the gross floor area of the industrial building being increase by greater than fifty percent (50%) of the gross floor area of the existing industrial building.

- b) If the gross floor area of an existing industrial building is enlarged by greater than 50 percent (50%) before the first enlargement for which an exemption from the payment of development charges was granted pursuant to the Act or this subsection, the amount of the development charge payable in respect of the enlargement is the amount of the development charge that would otherwise be payable multiplied by the fraction determined as follows:
- I. determine the amount by which the enlargement exceeds fifty percent (50%) of the gross floor area before the first enlargement for which an exemption from the payment of development charges was granted pursuant to the Act or this subsection;
 - II. divide the amount determined under subsection (i) by the amount of the enlargement.

3.14. Other Exemption / Reduction:

- a) Notwithstanding the provision of this by-law, development charges shall not be imposed with respect to:
- I. the gross floor area of a place of worship to a maximum of 5,000 square feet (or 464.5 square metres) or in respect of that portion of the gross floor area of a place of worship which is used as an area for worship, whichever is lesser;

 - II. Two bedrooms – twenty percent (20%) reduction; and

- III. All other bedroom quantities – fifteen percent (15%) reduction.

Amount of Charges

Residential

- 3.16. The development charges described in Schedule B to this by-law shall be imposed on residential uses of lands, buildings or structures, including a dwelling unit accessory to a non-residential use and, in the case of a mixed-use building or structure, on the residential uses in the mixed-use building or structure, according to the type of residential unit, and calculated with respect to each of the services according to the type of residential use.

Non-Residential Uses

- 3.17. The development charges described in Schedule C to this by-law shall be imposed on non-residential uses of lands, buildings or structures.

Multiple Non-retail and Retail Uses

- 3.18. In the case of lands, buildings or structures used or designed or intended for use for both non-retail uses and retail uses, the development charges otherwise applicable to such development under subsections 3.17 shall be determined on the following basis:
- a) as between the non-retail uses and the retail uses, the principal use of the development shall be that use which has the greater gross floor area, such principal use being the use of 55% or greater of the total gross floor area. If no single use has 55% or greater of the total gross floor area, then the development charge payable on the total gross floor area shall be the average of the non-residential charges payable;
 - b) the development charges under either subsection 3.17 applicable to such principal use as determined under paragraph (a), provided that there is a principal use determined under paragraph (a), shall be applied to the total non-residential gross floor area of the development;
 - c) Notwithstanding this subsection 3.18, if any building or structure designed or intended for use for both non-retail uses and retail uses, and, where such building or structure contains multiple individually owned units, each unit's payable development charges will be assessed individually based on the predominant use of that unit;

Credit for Provision of Services

- 3.19. Council may, by agreement entered into with the Owner, accept the provision of Services in full or partial satisfaction of the Development Charges otherwise payable. Such agreement shall further specify that where the Municipality agrees to allow the performance of work that relates to a Service, the Municipality shall give to the Owner a credit equal to the reasonable cost of doing the work against the Development Charge otherwise applicable to the Development, without interest, unless such interest is specifically authorized by Council, provided such credit shall not exceed the total amount of Development Charges payable by an owner to the Municipality and provided that no such credit shall be given for any part of the cost of services that relates to an increase in the level of service that exceeds the average level of service described in paragraph 4 of subsection 5(1) of the Act.

Mandatory Phase-in

- 3.20. The amount of the development charges described in Schedules B and C to this by-law shall be reduced in accordance with section 5(8) of the Act.

Reduction of Development Charges Where Redevelopment

- 3.21. Despite any other provision of this by-law, where, as a result of the redevelopment of land, a building or structure existing on the same land within forty-eight (48) months prior to the date of payment of development charges in regard to such redevelopment was, or is to be demolished, in whole or in part, or converted from one principal use to another principal use on the same land, in order to facilitate the redevelopment, the development charges otherwise payable with respect to such redevelopment shall be reduced by the following amounts:
- a) In the case of a residential building or structure, or in the case of a mixed-use building or structure, the residential uses in the mixed-use building or structure, an amount calculated by multiplying the applicable development charge under subsection 3.16 and of this by-law by the number, according to type, of dwelling units that have been or will be demolished or converted to another principal use; and provided that such amounts shall not exceed, in total, the amount of the development charges otherwise payable with respect to the redevelopment.
 - b) In the case of a non-residential building or structure or, in the case of mixed-use building or structure, the non-residential uses in the mixed-use building or structure, an amount calculated by multiplying the applicable development charges under subsection 3.17 by the gross floor area that has been or will be demolished or converted to another principal use; provided that such amounts shall not exceed, in total, the amount of the development charges otherwise payable with respect to the redevelopment.
- 3.22. Any building or structure, that is determined to be derelict, or the equivalent of derelict by the Council of the City, shall be eligible for redevelopment charge credits in accordance with subsection 3.23.
- 3.23. Any building or structure deemed derelict, or the equivalent of derelict in accordance with subsection 3.22 shall be eligible for development charge credits if a building permit is issued for a building or structure on the lands previously occupied by the deemed derelict residential building or structure within 120 months or less of the issuance of demolition permit for the deemed derelict building or structure. The calculation of the development charge credit shall be made in accordance with subsection 3.21, the total amount of which shall be based on the time that has passed between the date of issuance of the demolition permit and the date of issuance of the building permit as set out in Schedule D.

Time of Payment of Development Charges

- 3.24. Development charges imposed under this section are payable upon issuance of the first building permit with respect to each dwelling unit, building or structure.
- 3.25. Notwithstanding subsection 3.23 of this by-law, where Section 26.1 of the Act applies in respect of any part of a development, the development charges imposed under this by-law, in respect that part of the development to which Section 26.1 of the Act applies only, shall be payable in annual installments in accordance with the requirements of subsection 26.1(3) of the Act, and shall be subject to interest in accordance with City's Development Charge Interest Policy - Under sections 26.1 and 26.2 of the Act, 1997, as may be amended by City Council.
- 3.26. Where the development of land results from the approval of a site plan or zoning by-law amendment received on or after January 1, 2020, and the approval of the application occurred within two years of building permit issuance, the development charges under subsections 3.16 and 3.17 shall be calculated on the rates set out in Schedule "B" on the date of the planning application, including interest in accordance with the City's Development Charges Interest Policy. Where both planning applications apply, development charges under subsections 3.16 and 3.17 shall be calculated on the rates, including interest in accordance with the City's Development Charges Interest Policy, payable on the anniversary date each year thereafter, set out in Schedule "B" on the date of the later planning application, including interest.

- 3.27. Despite subsections 3.24 to 3.26, Council from time to time, and at any time, may enter into agreements providing for all or any part of a development charge to be paid before or after it would otherwise be payable, in accordance with section 27 of the Act.

4. RESERVE FUNDS

- 4.1. Development charge payments received by the City pursuant to this by-law shall be maintained in a separate reserve fund or funds for each service to which the development charge relates and shall be spent only for the capital costs determined under paragraphs 2 to 8 of subsection 5(1) of the Act.

5. INTEREST ON REFUNDS

- 5.1. Where this by-law, in whole or in part, or any development charge prescribed hereunder is amended or repealed by Order of the Ontario Land Tribunal, or if a development charge that has already been paid is reduced by the Council of the City pursuant to Section 20 of the Act, or by the Ontario Land Tribunal pursuant to Section 24 of the Act, the Treasurer for the City shall calculate forthwith the amount of any refund or overpayment to be refunded as a result of the said amendment or repeal.
- 5.2. Refunds that are required to be paid under subsection 5.1 shall be paid to the owner who made the payment.
- 5.3. Refunds that are required to be paid under subsection 5.1 shall be paid with interest to be calculated as follows:
- a) Interest shall be calculated in accordance with the Bank of Canada rate from the date on which the overpayment was collected to the date on which the refund is paid;
 - b) Interest on refunds for the period for which interest is payable pursuant to subsection 6.1 shall be calculated and paid on a fluctuating basis in accordance with the quarter-yearly adjustment of the interest rate as established in subsection c;
 - c) The Bank of Canada interest rate in effect on the date of coming into force of this by-law shall be adjusted quarter-yearly thereafter on the first business day of January, April, July and October in each year to the rate established by the Bank of Canada on that date of the adjustment.

6. INDEXING

- 6.1. Development charges imposed pursuant to this by-law shall be adjusted annually, without amendment to this by-law, commencing on July 1, 2024 and each July 1 annually thereafter, in accordance with the Statistics Canada Quarterly Construction Price Statistics.
