RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION PROCESS

You must be successful at every phase of the selection process to be considered for hire.

Stage 1: Online Application

All applicants must apply online using the City of Richmond Hill's online applicant tracking system. Any submission in any other form will not be accepted

Please complete your applications as follows:

- Scan all documents in black and white into one pdf file including your cover letter, resume and only the required qualifications as listed on the job posting.

All of the listed documents below must be submitted in order to be considered for the Probationary Fire fighter Candidate Pool.

1. Proof of Grade 12 OSSD / OSSGD or equivalent education
2. Proof of NFPA 1001 Fire Fighter I and II certifications or grandfathering equivalent
3. Proof of a Valid Class D License with Z endorsement and a current Driver's Abstract
4. Proof of current First-Aid, CPR Level C Certification from a recognized Organization/Provider

Please note that your file must be less than 5 MB to be accepted.

There is no fee to apply online however; all fees for the required testing, including fitness, aptitude, practical and medical are at the expense of the applicant. The total cost for testing is $120.00.

The City of Richmond Hill is committed to inclusive, barrier-free recruitment and selection processes. If contacted to participate in the recruitment and selection process, please advise Human Resources if you require an accommodation.

Stage 2: Written Aptitude Test

Applicants who have submitted an Application Form and have met all the required qualifications listed in the job posting and are selected to move forward, you will be contacted by email only inviting them to participate in the Aptitude testing. You will be notified of the exact date, time and location by email.

You will be required to bring the following items with you on the date of your test:

- A valid piece of government issued photo identification.
- Candidates who do not bring a valid piece of photo identification will not be permitted to write the test.
- 2B lead pencil
- Your confirmation email inviting you to the aptitude testing.

The Probationary Fire Fighter Aptitude Test is intended to evaluate your abilities in the following areas:

- Decision Making
- Coping in Stressful Situations
- Professional Responsibility
- Math, Mechanics and Logical Ordering
- Interpersonal Communication and Style

The test consists of 215 multiple-choice questions and has a 2-hour pre-determined time limit for completion. It requires no study preparation.

Please note that candidates arriving late will not be permitted and forfeit their invitation to write the test.

Stage 3: Practical Assessment and Job Ability Testing

Candidates that meet established criteria in the written aptitude testing will be invited to a practical assessment and job ability testing opportunity held at the Richmond Hill Fire and Emergency Services Training Centre. Invited candidates will be assessed on several job related activities and team scenarios to measure ability and suitability for the role.

Candidates that cannot attend the date(s) determined by RHFES will be removed from the Firefighting Recruitment process.

Stage 4: Formal Interview(s)

Based on the successful results of both stages 1, 2 and 3, selected candidates will be invited to the interview phase. The interview panel will consist of Richmond Hill Fire Services Chief Officers and Human Resources representatives.

The intent of the formal interview is to assist us in learning more about you. We will use several assessment techniques within a structured interview format such as behavior based questions, situational questions and position knowledge questions.

At the time of your interview, you are required to bring with you the following documents:

- Resume and Cover Letter
- Original copies of educational diplomas, current First Aid CPR Level C certificate, Ontario DZ driver's license abstract, NFPA 1001 Fire Fighter I and II certifications or grandfathering equivalent and any other relevant qualifications
- A satisfactory Police Vulnerable Sector Check valid within 6 months of application deadline.
- A list of three relevant references, two being previous work related supervisors.

Any costs associated with obtaining these documents are the applicant's responsibility.

Stage 5: Medical Assessment

Following the interviews, selected candidates moving forward will be contacted to undergo a medical assessment at York University.

Stage 6: Reference Check

The reference check is a tool used to substantiate information you have provided and they will allow us to learn more about you. Candidates that are moving forward will be asked to authorize the City of Richmond Hill to contact the references provided at the interview stage.

Stage 7: Final Review and Selection

The Selection Committee will determine a "short list" of selected candidates for final consideration. The selection of candidates is based on qualifications, job suitability, skills, abilities, motivational fit and organizational fit as determined from their application, testing, interviews, reference checks and vulnerable sector check.

Candidates moving forward will receive an offer of employment.

Remaining candidates on the "short list" who were not given an offer of employment will be notified in writing and their application will remain on the Eligibility List for future opportunities.
